Investment Policy

The investment objective of the sub-fund PROFFE TRENDFOLGER FUND is to generate a sustainable, above-market return. In order to achieve this investment objective, PROFFE TRENDFOLGER FUND invests in particular in investment securities and investment book-entry securities worldwide, such as shares, participation certificates and similar. In addition, the acquisition of derivative financial instruments such as certificates and structured products is also planned. Insofar as this is conducive to achieving the investment objective, any other authorised investment instruments may also be used. In selecting the securities and instruments to be acquired, the fund manager also makes use of the "Proffes Trend-Following Strategy" system, which a long-standing successful track-record. This is based on a specific assessment procedure for determining the trends of companies listed worldwide.

Disclaimer

We point out the fact that a positive performance in the past is no guaranty for a positive current performance or future development. Performance data does not include any commissions or fees for subscriptions and redemptions of shares. Investors should be conscious of the fact that prices of the investment fund may rise or fall and past performance does not necessarily predict future performance. Assets in foreign currency are subject to variations in the exchange rate. The development of the investment profit depends on the fact if the redemption price exceeds or is below the offering price paid by the investor. The fund is an AIF. This fund is only licensed for public distribution in Liechtenstein. In other countries the fund is not or only partly licensed for public distribution and is therefore not allowed to be marketed or offered for public distribution. Applicable are the regulations of the relevant country. The Investor Information and Trust Agreement as well as the respective annual reports can be drawn free of charge at the management company (Ahead Wealth Solutions AG | Austrasse 15 | 9490 Vaduz) or the custodian (Bank Frick & Co.
